Be Still and Know that I am God

A retreat on Ways of Praying February 1-2, 2019

A Retreat on Ways of Praying

Praying Our Experiences:

Let us be aware of God working in our daily life

Praying with Scripture:

Let the word of God speak to us.

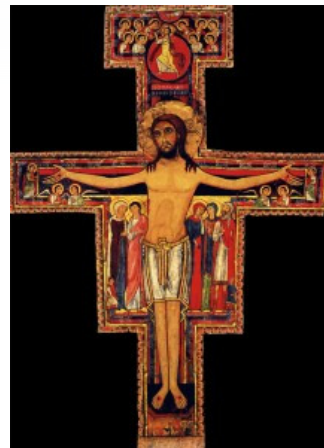

Centering Prayer:

Let quiet prayer still our hearts.

Each conference will be followed by a prayer experience.

Taize Prayer

What is Taizé prayer? It is a quiet form prayer designed for people of faith. It is a candlelit service that includes simple chants, rich silence, Scripture, and prayers for those in need. It offers an opportunity to leave our burdens at the feet of Jesus. Many find comfort and healing in this form of prayer.

Sessions will be held in O'Shea Conference Center located first floor Mother House.

Taizé prayer will be held in Ross Chapel, first floor Mother House.

This retreat will be conducted by the Marillac Team:

Sister Susan Chase, SCL

Sister Paula Rose Jauernig, SCL

Sister Sheila Taylor, SCL

Sister Noreen Walter, SCL

Sister Kathleen Wood, SCL
